Chapter 1: Where it All Starts! :A Star Is Born

June 17, 1998 was a babygirl named Amanda Denise Fletcher born she was 6 lbs. 14 oz. one of the most beautiful babies ever seen within that time.

Although I was a newborn, despite how crazy this sounds, I was always believed to have psychic visions or spiritually touched and gifted to understand the sense of society at stage of my life.

It all started when I was in my mom's arms as a newborn, my mom and dad will fight on a regular. He hit her with me in her arms.

To this day, I still remember that happening . That's what triggered my sense of society. My family's favorite place away from home was North Carolina. we used to have a happy family despite ups and downs. That all went down the drain when my grandmother died.

I don't remember being happy unless I saw Janet Jackson on television. When I was three years old, she used to pop in Janet Jackson's rhythm nation 1814 short film on VHS. I knew right then & there I wanted to be a Celebrity. My mom would next show me Michael Jackson, The Jacksons, Five Star, Aaliyah, Brandy, TLC, Whitney Houston, Patty Labelle, Toni Braxton, Babyface, Prince, Sheila E, The Time, Jesse Johnson, New Edition, DeBarge, Run-DMC, Force MD's, Digital Underground, Slick Rick, Salt N-Peppa, Kid N' Play, MC-Lyte, Biz Markie, Big Daddy Kane, & the list goes on....

At home We had a full collection of tapes and DVDs packed in crates, I had toys packed in a treasure trunk, and a bookshelf Collections of books (true crime stories, old educational text books, dictionaries & books).

My mom's favorite collections were true crime stories, and novels written by DMV's famous author, T. styles.

We'd visit my favorite home away from home my great grandmother's house in North Carolina at least twice a year growing up.
My favorite memories were with my younger cousins, my younger cousins were like my sisters, and researching through the vinyl cabinet to find old vinyl's from old school artists and musicians like Janet Jackson
Brown, Chuck Brown, Prince, Sheila E, Stacy Lattisaw, and Johnny Gill.

Groups & Bands like Kool & The Gang, DeBarge, The Commodores, The Jacksons, and many more.

I remember when I first started liking boys
the first boy ever liked name was Marquise.
I used to pray to be with him, but he ended up with a girl that used to tease me & partake in bullying me.
But he was so nice to me.
I let him go and started focusing on my music
when we was in 5th grade.

When I went to North Carolina around Thanksgiving, during that time, I found a hit album by DeBarge "All This Love" 1982.

What first caught my eye was gorgeous They all were on the front cover.

At the time, I thought James DeBarge was so handsome and charming. That was the beginning of me going home and looking up old-school on YouTube.

I wanted to learn about music history and look at the guys all at the same time.

I started watching purple rain and Krush Groove on VH1 Soul after all of the hit music videos from the 80s would go off on television.

I would tune in if I was in my mom and dad's shoes growing up all over again.

That's how I connected to their childhood.

I really channeled their actions to kids and took into consideration how they felt growing up.

That's what inspired me to making my own music and generating my own playlist in the style of a radio station.

I attempted to put it back together to start working and listening to the vinyl that I possessed of my mom's old collection, unfortunately I wasn't able to get it to work so studied the concept of creating a Bluetooth vinyl player before Inventor "Jesse England" generated one.

The guy who literally had similar ideas as I in Musical Technology.

Smart guy right?

This took place during the nostalgia times.
Early to mid 2000s.

Chapter 2: Trust The Process!

In 2008 back when I was in 5th grade, I learned about poetry. My oldest brother used to have rap battles and write his own lyrics back in the day. He often looked up to 2Pac. Bro inspired me to do the same.

My dad often played 2Pac and Wu-Tang Clan. They were my reflection in my writing in which led to my interest in writing my own music & engineering. I started tuning and using Apple iTunes media player equalizer apps on my iPod touch on my mom's dell computer long before Apple Music was generated.

I used to burn CDs on real player and transport. The music over to iTunes generate single covers by uploading old singles & EPs on YouTube that they now have available on all platforms. That's how I learned to use technology. I then predicted that technology would be the future of music and television.

When most would watch me dance, they'd love it, while some would get jealous and try to steal my joy so they could keep their popularity
Intimate my style.

I was always a natural bone star and people hated that even my family did.

My parents would often tell me to be quiet.
People always in general told me to be quiet because I was always "a little too real & talk too much". I had to no room to express myself but take in everyone else's pain since I was a kid.
My parents always threw me in the middle of their fights. My dad used me to spy on my mom & report to him until I grew up & said no!
It got worst & worst so bad I ran away from home.

It started at 7YO. My dad beat me so bad with a belt that the marks were on my legs for 2 days like whip marks after antagonizing me so I talked back & told him I hated him & it triggered him.

I packed up my kiddy suit case with my favorite clothes, I took my mom'a keys and snuck out of the house as fast as I could. I attempted to start my mom's car & leave until the security caught me & made me show him where I live so he could take me back home.

I was forced on medication & into Therapy & that was the start of my SSI Check in which my parents used my trauma to continue to antagonize me and paint a picture of a lie for society to believe I suffered from extreme mental illness in order to continue to receive a check for me “to pay the bills”.

I was always considered a triple threat. Not in a negative way.

Apparently, "I knew too much". I only wanted to help my community from the start. That's why I do what I do still to this day.

Started From Tha Top!

My sixth grade teacher was also my cheerleader coach since the fifth grade that's where my confidence in performing arts first kicked in. You couldn't & still can't tell me nothing. This was & will always remain my outlet away from home.

My former music teacher of three years gave me my first lead act on stage. I was chosen in 2009 about two weeks after Michael Jackson's death to perform his hit song Rockin' Robin on Stage with my ex-boyfriend from high school who was then one of my best friends and a one of my backup dancers at the time.

This brought out our talents before our Transition to middle school together and stopped a lot of feud between my classmates & I.

I was a cheerleader, and the best performer in the school at the time, popularity was very important to me, and I finally achieved something I always wanted.

To this day, that's still my favorite school year. Class of 2009 in sixth grade was a very legendary year for me. That's where all of my great & iconic memories in school still remains.

When The Ball DROPPED:

Everything went sour after that year. I had a very tough transition into junior high. I went to Oxon Hill middle school. I saw a few former friends who came together again and I thought I would be a part of their reunion. It turned out that because I was so quiet They had no interest in being friends. That broke my heart. All I could think about was how I missed the previous year.

Two weeks later after settling in seventh grade I met a guy name Alvin. He was the first crush of junior high that I was interested in at the time. We was cool at some point , we always would collaborate on something until I told a classmate that I had a crush on him.

He said very mean things to me because he felt being my boyfriend would ruin his reputation as the cool guy.

Chapter 3: The Imitation

He used to always rap in class. He was known for sounding just like Drake.

Nicki Minaj came out that year and made it to mainstream all the girls in school to be just like her, even down to their hairstyles & the way they dressed. Some girls shaved the side of their heads like Cassie and blended pink ombre within their hair to give it a Cassie and Nicki Minaj look.

Other girls would wear tracks to make hair blend & look similar.

That was the year I started wearing wigs. Wearing wigs for me was just like when the world found out Milli Vanilli was lip-syncing. No one around me was confident in wearing wigs until I started wearing wigs similar to my natural hair.

It was finally revealed that I was wearing a wig when I got into a fight with a girl I was real cool with defending myself from her cruelty as she was trying to pick on me to impress her so-called friends.

When I started high school I was wearing tracks, & they all backtracked & started wearing lace frontal wigs in the same styles as me when I was rocking wigs.

People would always be so fast to grow up, not realizing the time they were all missing while I embraced the time of still trying to stay as young as possibly could at the time. The only thing that made me wear wigs was because I didn't know how to do my own hair like I do now. Also I had a rough life at home. I regret nothing from my past though.

I was invited to battle rap that year as well with Alvin and our mutual friend Virgil. Virgil was a good guy he was just a goofball. Sometimes I didn't know if he was genuinely playing or just teasing me to be mean.

A Twisted Transition

Over the summer I'd spend time with my neighborhood friends who were Irish twins. Jamila was my best friend & so was Jihad even though I had a huge crush on him. I would often get jealous when he'd talk to me about a girl he liked named Jasmin. She was so pretty and I wanted to look like her. We temporarily fell out until I called and apologized and agreed that I would stop being jealous and move on.

I continued to work on my music and met a former DMV Artist "Young Noah" who I thought was legit. At the time I was 12YO & he was 17YO. He tried to pressure me to meet up with him to perform oral sex on him as a so-called deal to book a studio session "considering I wasn't old enough to be in the studio"!

Summer ended & I went back to Oxon Hill middle school. I hated it there. The Bullying continued. This time with physical abuse and hate. The only memories I had of eighth grade was when Alvin physically assaulted me after antagonizing me during a rap battle because I won. He threatened to beat the shit out of me & called me out my name, pushed me, I hit my head on the wall, so I hit him with a book.

He beat the hell out of me.

They only suspended me until my mom and dad came up to the school.

The next week I came back to school everyone asked the teacher why I was in class. The girls bullied me again more verbally than anything. I was afraid that he'd hurt me again when he came back, so I brought a knife to school.

Unfortunately someone saw it & I Almost got expelled but I didn't because I could prove my case. They had me to consult with the probation officer, although I was never arrested or put on probation.

My family agreed to send me to Crossland high school (Crossland Re-Entry for acute behavioral students) due to my actions, I finished Oxon Hill Middle School in their Special Education Program as I transitioned for High School the next year. Unfortunately I didn't get to see graduation but I did pass on to the next grade.

My next year at Crossland Started out okay. I made friends temporarily until I started skipping school to go and be with my very first sex partner who thought was my very first boyfriend at the time. He was 25 years old. I met him on a dating site called tagged.

I thought he was the most handsome man I've ever seen. He pressured me into skipping school. He raped me & got away with it because I consented out of fear & lied about my age at the time & lied to my parents, I couldn't prove my case.

I moved on to the next guy on the dating sight and met a guy named Eric through the previous guy's ex-girlfriend & didn't realize they all knew each other. He claimed to help me with a place to stay. He also pressured me to leave school, he picked me up from the McDonalds by my school with 2 other guys. They took me to his basement around Largo MD Area somewhere in the cut of his home & they forced me into a foursome. He told me if I didn't let them he'd call 10 other guys and they'd all beat me & make me do it and I won't have a way home. He choked me, called me several names (bitch, whore, slut, etc.) & made me bark like a dog while they continue to rape me in several forced positions I've never tried before. They literally made me a street sex symbol at the time.

They took me to a local 7-eleven, asked me if I wanted anything, I said yes, he told me to go get what I wanted and left me. He stole my purse with my new phone in it and posted to my Facebook From my phone "I love sucking dick" to my account.

Every guy on my page thought it was me and kept treating me like a slut. They ruined my reputation at the time.

Summer ended & I went back to Oxon Hill middle school. I hated it there. The Bullying continued. This time with physical abuse and hate. The only memories I had of eighth grade was when Alvin physically assaulted me after antagonizing me during a rap battle because I won. He threatened to beat the shit out of me & called me out my name, pushed me, I hit my head on the wall, so I hit him with a book. He beat the hell out of me. All I ever wanted was a good boyfriend and great friends with a happy family and a great education, instead I received continuous abuse, neglect & grooming at school by my teachers and students in my class, no friends, bigger problems than myself & a reputation of good sex only: EASY TARGET!

Chapter 4:

A Little Girl Lost:

After that I SNAPPED!!!

My parents put a boat lock on our door to prevent me from leaving out.

One night I got tired of being in the house alone with my younger brother, I knew nothing about raising kids & didn't want to know at the time considering I was forced to watch my younger brother while my parents went to the casino every 2-3 days a week and have fun leaving us behind for hours with all responsibilities on me.

I attempted to pick the lock but was unsuccessful with that.

I jumped out of the 3rd story window of the home apartment we were living in at the time to leave with a guy I met tagged. His name was Blair. He was a okay guy at first. Now that I think about it, there's no way this man can claim he didn't know my age. It was his idea that I jumped out of the window to come live with him after finding out about the abuse that was happening at home by my dad.

I called him from the house phone not thinking. All I knew was that I wanted to leave and find better then come back to help my brother get away from the mess my dad put us through growing up.

Once they helped me up after I jumped and bust my back lol, we left and I stayed with them for 2 days until my parents called his phone.

The police came to knock on his door, I left out the back with his friend Rick. He was trying to talk me into having sex with him. I declined and once the police left we went back and they dropped me off to the child & family services office.

I asked them to help me find a better home so I can feel more safe and they returned me back home where I wanted to leave every second being there.

My parents left back out for BINGO & I finally learned how to pick the boat lock with a bobby pin.

I left & this time I left & was gone for 3 weeks within the silver hill area of Suitland MD where I was trafficked and raped by a local pimp & neighborhood goons who couldn't get pussy from real women.

I was beaten a day before my missing persons report went viral.

The guy Tay who repeatedly helped rape & abuse me called the number on the flyer & 911 when he realize I wasn't the age they claimed i was.

I took up for him out of fear when the cops and my parents arrived. I'd rather died than went back continuously thinking of my abuse over & over again locked in a home or a facility because of my non-stability.

Unfortunately I still had to go back home.

I ran-away one week later once again!

I met a guy named Ty, he was with a junkie friend who eventually forced me to suck him off after hearing about my reputation. I didn't tell him until his friend lied on me.

Ty & I had sex the same day and he let me sleep in an unfinished project he was working on. But it was something since he was married living in the church across the sleep with his wife, their kids & their pastor.

He knew if they knew about me he'd lose everything. He didn't care as much until his wife got sick. We had sex every night. We'd share rhymes & freestyles we've been working on.

We'd talk about my future while he figured out his. He felt young again.

I left to go to DC since the music scenery had Something happening local. I met the men of the city that stole my soul while I was vulnerable with barely any guidance. This is where I met a guy named black, we locked eyes at first sight he introduced me to my best friend Elmo & his ex girlfriend Linda.

We were all so tight back then until me & Black Broke up. Towards our breakup he got insecure,

He would yell at me consistently because he couldn't control me. I was learning to be solo at this point. I the mix I met Tim, Aaron & their partners, Tim & Aaron were brothers & they were rappers that never made It fr fucking with that k2 & water they was selling on the streets.

They taught me everything I know about expanding fashion, that made a heavy match with my skills to hustle.

I used to steal clothes out of forever 21, h&m and spots like that back in the day & sell the clothes so I could eat not understanding the consequences behind my actions.

I used to come out with shoes, clothes, backpacks, food, and everything I wanted out of greedy stores in the malls & share with those in need then sell the rest.

I got barred & everything fell apart. I went to find my old chill spot at the Pavilion aka the old post office, where I used to get raped in my sleep by homeless men.

I found out the same dudes paid niggas to rape me cause they followed me to find out where I slept after hearing about my past reputation.

This would leave them a position to become my pimp. I ended up with dudes who I thought wanted me but they paid to have sex with me & play mind games knowing I was young.

I got tired and escaped. I went back to Suitland...

When got back I called Ty so we could talk before I went home. He was at the hospital with his wife because she was sick. She heard me on the phone and almost had a heart attack. My heart broke for her. I stopped calling for 3 years and left him alone, hoping I didn't destroy his family. Unfortunately I did & I payed for it through my future marriage.

Later that year I met a guy named Tavon

He was the first guy I truly ran after for a long period of time. He was cute & nice but he never showered. I broke up with him because he cheated on me with a woman I thought were great friends.

We were back & forth but never worked out.

I ended up with a guy named Marcel 2-3 months later who was a K2 head because back then cannabis was still illegal.

He was cute, I thought he was getting himself together. He just got home from prison. I didn't ask why, i didn't care. I loved them bad boys back then. He pressured me into giving him head for a place to stay, I did it. I was so disgusted with myself, i didn't want to go back home. My dad and I often got into fights while my mom was at work because I wouldn't take up for him when he'd antagonize her & my brothers. I became his next target.

Marcel let me stay. He attempted to have sex with me. I was so uncomfortable I was shaking.

He stopped, he yelled at me but he never hit me.

He loved me, at least I thought he did.

He bought me new clothes, he'd get my hair done, he'd even take me to get anything I wanted to eat and that was huge for me at the time. No one had ever done that for me.

I used to hustle and sell weed and pay for hotels for these niggas and they'd never do the same for me. Just feed me dick and devalue me because they knew I was young with no education.

Tavon tried to sacrifice me. He forced me to have sex for weed.

Marcel took everything I had after 2 months and sold it for K2. He was fucking a girl I was locked up with and thought was a friend as well named Princess!

Chapter 5:

The Poly-Relationship:

Then I met my first love "Smiley" through one of the bitches named Diamond I thought was a friend I later on found out she was fucking my ex Tavon.

I met Smiley when I was on the phone with Marcel.

Marcel was yelling at me so bad that Smiley thought Marcel was gonna hit me.

I left and stayed down gallery place DC all night until the morning. I went to Mariam's Kitchen. Me & Tavon's former favorite place to eat and get artsy when we was bored. That's how I found my love for arts and crafts.

Then I waited until they called me to come over.

Diamond came to meet me at Georgia Ave-Petworth Metro Station.

It was raining like crazy on this day!

I was nearly drenched when I arrived.

Smiley was so happy to meet me in person, he made me some of the best spaghetti I've ever tasted in my entire life. He immediately became infatuated with me. He asked me if I needed help in the bathroom and flickered his tongue at me like he wanted to lick me up & down.

No one's ever went down on me so that was new to me. I was always so used to guys forcing me to suck dick. I thought he was married so i said no.

I came out of the bathroom and Diamond asked me to be their wifey. I was like "huh"?

What about your husband, she was like "hubby cool with it, he want you too"!

This took place in April 2014 & I didn't say yes until August 2014.

I was in a troubled situation when I came back across Diamond at MLK Library Downtown not far from Gallery Place-Chinatown DC.

I found out that she put out a missing person's report on me because I disappeared and they thought I was of age and never asked my age. I left the library and went up to the park. When I arrived I met a guy who out of nowhere claimed he wanted to date me.

Diamond came down there with our ex-girlfriend Tavon's baby mother Dashawna who had a baby on me with my ex while I was locked up.

They both were all over the guy that claimed really date me so I went back to the library and got on Facebook.

Facebook wasn't yet developed into an app but messenger was so calling was nearly impossible if I had no internet, mobile hotspots were known as tethering back then so they were nearly useless.

The only person I could think of messaging was Smiley. He greeted me and called me beautiful. We started flirting and I asked him if we can meet up. I felt so confident going to see him because he made me feel protected. He came to meet me halfway. He was so sexy in his camouflage jeans & a white t-shirt with his Bandanna on. He had on his schoolboy circle glasses back then. So cute.

He took me back to the house and made love to me for the first time and we craved each other more than ever since that moment.

He went down on me for the first time and it was the first time a man has ever done that on me. After I squirted on his face, he put my hand on his cock and told me that's yours baby!

I instantly fell in love. He caressed me and put my legs up and gently pounded me until I had an orgasm and he came immediately afterwards as if he was waiting for me to have an orgasm first.

He complimented expressing that my pussy tasted like Strawberries & I smelled like flowers.

I cleaned myself up & we left out. He gave me his pin # to his EBT & Debit Card for the first time out of no where and told me he has never done that before and i promised him to never take him for granted! I meant that & I love him dearly too this day.

I left and came back hours later. This time when we met up, a bitch I disliked for fucking my ex- boyfriend Ernest who shared the same birthday with me (that's all I remember of him) Was walking down the street with his cousin bragging about a threesome they had.

I didn't know the other guy they were talking about was Smiley until Diamond came to the store where I was going to meet Smiley pissed off looking for him. She pulled me to the side and said she wanted to beat the bitch up & I asked why and she explained that the other guy was Smiley. I was hurt because he lied to me. I was about to go beat the bitch up myself for the principal because this was the second time she crossed the line with me.

Smiley also expressed that she hit my step-daughter who still to this day call me ma. I eventually found her and beat her up.

Everything was going smooth with our poly-relationship until Jealousy got involved. I was hurt and ended up with his ex-wife's ex-fiancé and didn't realize it until a year later. By then the city committed me legally and sent me off to residential.

In 2015

They cut me out the picture and got married. While I was in treatment. Attempted to have a baby to get her away from her crazy family and he promised me when I got home he'd leave her and we'd start a family.

They moved in with this chick named Nicky who he Fucked eventually and she tried to groom me. He was on K2 during that time and she admitted to taking him for granted while he was high. It was confessed that he was being trafficked by Diamond . Ever since I fought for him until I was 18.

By August 2015 I made my first song "Started From The Top" at DYRS 450 H St. Studio in Washington DC with my former music engineer instructor who taught me about audio engineering and making beats from garage band. The song was inspired by my guilt for running away and making poor decisions to get me in the situation I was in to be in the system.

I also earned my first TV Production Certification as well.

Unfortunately I ran away again after a heated argument with my dad.

My oldest brother almost died from a laced Jay after work so I was hurt about the way my dad was speaking of him and it was nothing I could do. I couldn't eat, I couldn't sleep, & I felt like I was in prison at home with my parents.

I left for 28 Days and went to stay with Diamond & Smiley at Nicky's.

They paid my rent for that month. Everything was cool until Diamond kept introducing me to her side niggas.

Smiley had spies on us so I had to bail on her to save my relationship with him.

He still blamed me for her behavior because he saw me as the responsible one. Of course that was his excuse when in reality that was his way of taking his anger out on me and her like we were garbage.

I met her ex named Scooby and left for one night to go make music with him.

Smiley thought we was fucking. Although Scooby & his wife wanted to, I said no.

I started doing hair professionally during that time & made money to take care of myself while on the run. Of course no one knew that was the case. I did tell everyone my age though.

When I got back, Smiley was a little mad at me, he chilled though. We smoked a Jay.
Afterwards He followed me to the bathroom,
He lifted me up on the sink and made love to me so good. No man has ever picked me up like that. I was always told I'm too big and that I don't deserve that good treatment from a man. That was the first and last time I've ever experienced making love like that.

Someone knocked on the door and we almost got caught. We took a shower, made dinner and cleaned up together. That was the first time he told me he's in love with me.

That's when I discovered that he was my true first love. He promised me that he'd leave Diamond. That didn't happen though.

I went out one last time with Diamond and we dressed up. No one has ever seen me dressed up & sexy in a dress with my hair done so nicely so they were shocked and of course the men were in heat.
That was the first time I ever met Ken-Dogg (Smiley's Brother). Smiley told him about me apparently because he asked me about him. I didn't know what to say so I just said he's doing good.

I found out they were brothers 2 years later.

On the way back Diamond saw 2 niggas she was fucking. Her pussy got wet like a dog fr.
She started fucking these niggas in the back of the metro bus.

I left and she met me at Anacostia.
I went back & told Smiley. Took a shower and we went to see his cousin "Cino".
That was the first time we ever met.
Cino was an asshole at the time.
He would test question me to see my response.
"Do you suck dick? I got a big dick for you!"
Smiley had faith I'd say no apparently in which I did.
So we all smoked a Jay & chilled.

When we left, we took a walk right afterwards.
Smiley made me promise him that I'd never cheat on him.
I made that promise and meant it.
He told me he'd kill me if I go back on my word.
He looked so serious so I believed him but I was dangerously in love with him.

They moved in with this chick named Nicky who he Fucked eventually and she tried to groom me. He was on K2 during that time and she admitted to taking him for granted while he was high. It was confessed that he was being trafficked by Diamond . Ever since I fought for him until I was 18.

We went back to Nicky's. I saw a police car & hid. Smiley went back in the house and told Nicky. Everyone started freaking out.

We chilled though.

Smiley went back out 2 hours later and had a K2 Jay. Nicky got into a fight with my cousin Bam in whom she was engaged to at the time & he put his hands on her. Smiley was about to beat his ass. We had to calm him down. He went and had another K2 Jay. He started talking crazy & he told me he never had any feelings for me and that they were just using me. That was the first heated argument we've ever had. I left out. He tore Nicky's door off the hinges.

I left the next day. I went home. My mom & dad turned me in and I got back out 2 weeks later around Mid-September 2015.

Chapter 6: Stuck in Between a Rock & a Hard Place!

I found out they were brothers 2 years later.

On the way back Diamond saw 2 niggas she was fucking. Her pussy got wet like a dog fr. She started fucking these niggas in the back of the metro bus.

I left and she met me at Anacostia. I went back & told Smiley. Took a shower and we went to see his cousin "Cino". That was the first time we ever met. Cino was an asshole at the time. He would test question me to see my response. "Do you suck dick? I got a big dick for you!" Smiley had faith I'd say no apparently in which I did. So we all smoked a Jay & chilled. He loved me & I loved him. He never knew my age until 2 years later. I didn't allow him to get too close to me.

In February 2016 I found out he was still sleeping with his babymother and I didn't want any parts in that. Smiley used to be in a gang (Rollin' 60s) & come to find out Jay was a Crip as well from the same set. By the time I found out we already had sex. I found out the same night I met his biological sister Kat. She was his Rock fr. Kat & I bonded immediately. She's literally my sis. That night was Jay's Birthday Celebration. We planned to spend Valentine's Day together, unfortunately that didn't happen because he tried to make me sleep in a cold apartment up the street just because he was drunk and wanted to fuck and be away from the family so I left and we didn't see each other again until 2 years later.

By March 2016 Diamond & Smiley moved into Smiley's 1st apartment. He didn't tell me until 3 weeks later. By that time, my mom took me and my brother and left to go to a transitional home so we can work on getting a new place due to my dad's abuse. He was still antagonizing and beating on my mother, even when it was discovered that he was dying from cancer. During that time I found out I was pregnant. My mom made me get abortion. My baby was supposed to have been my motivation to change. At the time I felt like they stole hope from me.

We found out my dad had cancer when I was seven years old. We were on our way to my aunt Linda house. Of course I didn't understand the severity of cancer at that time. I got to understand fast though, He had to be rushed into surgery two weeks after finding out at his regular checkup with his primary care doctor.

Dad almost died on the operating table. He lost a very tremendous amount of blood thank God he made it through.

I don't know what we would've done. No matter the pain I still love my dad.

Fast forward to late, March 2016. I went to visit Diamond and Smiley at the old apartment on Ridge Rd SE Minnesota Avenue. Back then all the apartment wasn't right it was something. That was all they had or they would've been on the streets.

The apartment was their blessing and their curse together in one place.

The blessing was being off the streets & new opportunities.

Smiley had the opportunity to claim custody of the kids he was raising (non-biologically).

The price was to get rid of Diamond.

I moved in 2 days later for about 28 days.

They attended court the day after I moved in. I monitored the home while they were out for court.

They almost had custody.

Diamond's history of child abuse & neglect was the only problem. He got denied custody.

They got home. Smiley was hurt of course.

I gave him his space. Diamond nagged his nerves, making messes for him to clean up with no effort to clean up for herself.

Talking about their business to everyone in the streets. Selling ass and bringing orgies to the house while Smiley attended Parenting Classes.

Telling lies on me & his sister.

He put me out and I was hurt. I Questioned God.

The same night, I caught an adult charge.

That's what made me change my life for good.

I did time for 3 months. While doing time I found God, I Stayed in my cell for 23 hours a day for the first 1 1/2 month or so. I got a job to clean for commissary, free phone calls, & an extra 2 hours out of my cell but I had to stay within the psych population. No doubt it got me out quicker for sure. I spent time reading the Bible, Law, Drama/Romance & true crime books.

I witnessed the moment on television where Donald Trump was elected for president.

One week later, I spoke with Smiley, he spoke with my lawyer and he got me out.

I went to stay with Smiley & found out that Jay was staying as well. I knocked on the door for at least 20 minutes when I arrived. Jay answered the door questioning me about where I've been and why I didn't come see him. He was more hurt than didn't come see him than happy that I was home so I didn't say anything to him for two days.

I walked in the room and all I saw was condoms on the floor.

Smiley promised me before I got there that he will leave Diamond.

He promised to save himself for me so I felt betrayed once again. I spent the next 2 days settling in & staying to Myself as I take in the fact that im

Now 18 and spent my birthday in Adult Jail, so now I'm working on housing at this time.

Jay & I finally started communicating after two days. He started drinking again so Smiley put him out. I found out shortly afterwards that Jay was his brother. I felt like I was being ran through something. I felt like they knew all along, and never told me & again I felt betrayed.

After two weeks of bullshit and betrayal, I finally left and meant it at least during that time I knew he'd be back, so I gave him his space.

He gave me the runaround until September. I was with a guy named Leon who was with a friend of Diamond's named Stephanie.

I didn't like her and I didn't like the way she treated Leon. It definitely reminded me of the way Diamond treated Smiley.

He was stupid to keep going back so I want to be with my best friend Larry. We were dating slightly until he ended up with a girl I did not like it as well named Angel.

She was a demon within though. I found out they've been on and off while we were together, he asked me to marry him. He introduced me to a family. I was about to introduce him to Mine until he bought her in the house he was about to let her stay the night. She thought she was gonna run over me so I beat her ass and then I left.

I went back to Smiley's house for the night and then I left and went back home where I resided until later that year.

During that time, I was patching up things with Smiley. Little did I know he was planning our first official date together. It was at Red Lobster, one of my favorite restaurants during that time. I came out in a white lace, top, black bottoms and Jordans with red lipstick and a red hair wrap. I was so beautiful. I even had on a white rose pearls bracelet with a Michael Kors silver link bracelet that My mother gave me. I felt so special. This was new for me at the time.

We looked so good together and it felt so right.

We finally have more deeper conversations till we've ever had. I finally got to understand something about him that I didn't before. I felt confident so didn't bother me. I just want no strings attached at that point so everything felt so natural.

He went back home and he gave me the rest of the food. I went back home and went to bed with a smile on my face.

The next day I called and Diamond answered his phone. I was pissed so I hung up. She called back and asked me why I was calling his phone. I told her because I can he doesn't want you anymore anyway.

Poor little desperate me at the time when you're young shit happens we're all human.

She got upset and she told him he not getting on tonight and I could hear him growl. Another phone I was hurt so I stop answering the next time I came around was one month before the separation papers were filed. I saw the other friend Scooby a.k.a. Derek.

I met Derek and Kaylan. They were both in the music. Derek was OK until he started getting all extra. He wanted to fuck so Kaylan me being stupid and wanting to get Smiley and Diamond back for their betrayal, I still went & did so.

They were heated and of course, Diamond with her hoe ass went and found her a new wifey.

I was cool with it, but also knew Diamond be getting evicted soon. So I didn't care.

Diamond went outside out of anger after her new wifey's brother knocked on the door to give her wifey her stuff.

I answered the door and realized he was my ex boy, Was she pissed?! Hell yeah I knew I have victory. For once in my life, I felt as though I had the right to play with hearts. That was the first and last time I've ever felt that way.

The revenge was real.

He immediately recognized me and started hugging me and feeling on my ass reminiscing on how good we fucked the last time he saw me. We exchanged numbers and scheduled to meet up the next day. I knew he only wanted to fucked so I left him in limbo (Rewind): I met him on tagged when I was 15.

He referenced our relationship to Aaliyah & R.Kelly's past relationship (weird asf)...

We fucked when I was 17, he invited his cousin and we had a 3-some.

When I first started the poly-relationship with Diamond & Smiley, when they got tired of me, I'd call him to spend the night and would have sex with him in exchange and that's pretty much what he was reminiscing.

When Diamond saw our connection she got mad and went outside yelling their place had bedbugs so I left. Scooby & Smiley just got back after Her wifey's brother left and I ran into them as I was leaving.

Scooby walked with me telling on Smiley about the conversation they had about me.

I knew right then he wasn't a real friend.

I left them alone and went home.

By the time I got on the bus I got a message from Smiley saying I have to leave because Diamond told him I told the entire neighborhood they had bedbugs.

So I text him and said you're late bitch, tell your hoe to stop lying.

If he believes her he's a fool. Check with everyone out front and I bet the truth will reveal itself. No one liked her and they witnessed her saying that and showed him the footage. He contacted me by Midnight with an apology and I stopped talking to him until he made his relationship with me make sense.

Chapter 7: The Beginning of New Beginnings

Smiley & Nicky Invited me over for Christmas to seal our relationship.

He finally decided to leave Diamond after discovering their relationship was no longer about the kids, just prostitution and using him for a place to stay.
We spent Christmas together and one week later...

I almost made my decision to let him go... I met another man named Kevin. He reminded me so much of Eazy-E
We spun every week together.

When I was about to move on he called me and asked me to go with him to file for divorce. I went with him and we started the paperwork. I found out I had a warrant out for my arrest and I ran off to New Jersey to clear my mind and came back the same night after processing my decision. I spoke with my caseworker at the time and we made an agreement. She helped me change my life changed my life around and I moved in with Kevin one week later, he became my guardian on paperwork as I completed my juvenile commitment.

I got my first DC ID & made my second song
“somebody” from my first album at DYRS 450
H St. on my own this time unsupervised.
The song was inspired by my situation with KD.
I was hurt that he sent me home and was hoping he chose me instead of her. It was my spirit crying to him for help while hoping he doesn’t turn back. I felt as though I needed him and he was that somebody.

Everything was great until I had to put her family out of the apartment once she no longer lived there. Her cousin lived upstairs. We still cool. However, My peace meant more to me.

In March 2017 I found out I was pregnant with my daughter Legacy. We were so happy. At least until my next appointment. Smiley started treating me terribly, running off out of nowhere.

He almost made me miss my 1st prenatal appointment. He promised he'd go and he knew I needed him and was about to bail out and leave me walking in pain.

I found out why 1 week later when I started bleeding at the studio.

He celebrated his graduation from parenting class with drugs and alcohol and left me in the hospital with no help. I had to call my mom who cussed me out & begged me to abort.

He started letting his exes in the house when I was out making it happen as I prepared for the birth of our child. I had to show some heat for sure.

I was released from commitment on June 1st 2017 3 months after I got pregnant with my daughter. I came home from my mom's house that morning to see a supposedly friend in my bedroom with my fiancé that hurt me to the core.

I threw her shit out the window and told him if I catch him with her or another whore I'm gonna fuck them all up and I meant it. I got tired of him taking my kindness for weakness.

We finally have more deeper conversations till we've ever had. I finally got to understand something about him that I didn't before. I felt confident so didn't bother me. I just want no strings attached at that point so everything felt so natural.

He went back home and he gave me the rest of the food. I went back home and went to bed with a smile on my face.

The revenge was real.

Everything was great until I had to put her family out of the apartment once she no longer lived there. Her cousin lived upstairs. We still cool.

However, My peace meant more to me.

He was a helpful man and he loved me, but he was abusive, at the time he used to get high and hit me when he was upset out of trauma. He threaten to beat our child out of me while I was pregnant when he would get drunk.

He told me to leave and threw all my shit in the hallway until I called my father who he met the same day my dad had a stroke from his cancer. He knew my dad wasn't playing and let me back in. We worked it out until he lost his mind and stayed at his cousin's house.

He'd leave responsibilities of that ragedy ass apartment on me knowing I was suffering with no help.

There was over 7 people living in the one bedroom before I made them all leave. He literally turned his own apartment into a trap house.

I knew it was almost time for me to leave so I start applying for housing. It was hard to find resources during that time.

He didn't stop his addictive behaviors, behaviors, at least temporarily until it was almost time to have our daughter.

he stopped temporarily in November 2017 because my dad was on hospice and he was about to pass away two weeks later.

My dad's funeral was November 27th 2017 I remembered being in labor and thinking to myself what if I have my baby on November 29th as my dad predicted before his death.

November 28th at 11 PM I called my mom because I was in a lot of pain but my water hadn't yet broken and my mucous plug come out. I've never seen that before I went to the hospital was induced immediately.

November 29th at 4:32 PM I had our daughter. The most beautiful girl in the world to me. I knew right there I was the sacrifice from that point forward.

January 2018 we got married.

He only married me because he thought he would get anal sex.

I married because it was only right for our daughter and I loved him so much.

2 months later... I was pregnant again with my son
Legend

He went back on drugs shortly after he moved his cousin.

Fast Foward...

October 24th 2018:

I knew something was wrong for sure when I gave birth to my son because my mom had to cut his umbilical cord. Smiley left out Right before I gave birth, knowing I told him the baby was on the way like ASAP and not to leave if he's gonna cut the cord. He came back and had an attitude everyday since then. Although he seemed happy he wasn't.

3 weeks after my son was born in November 2018 he was getting so high out of misery & unhealed trauma that we almost lost our kids due to no space in the home so I had to put hands on him after he got in my face for forcing his cousin to pack up & leave.

I felt like hell and was suffering from postpartum depression. I slit my wrist hoping to end it all twice & healed my own wounds as if it never happened. We fought every day until he sobered up. He bit me in my nose, in my eye, & on my arm, I slit his wrist in return.

I got so tired I left and almost moved back in with my mom. My family wasn't ready to accept me being on my own so I made a wiser decision to start planning my move to Arlington or Fairfax VA & start doing hair before while we had the chance before we run out of options

May 2019: Leaving DC

The patch up so-called maintenance work in the outdated apartment on Ridge Road SE had been labeled by the inspectors that the entire complex was a hazardous community.

The walls would rot no matter how many times we cleaned the mold out of our unit, the help we called maintenance for, they'd come paint & not do anything about it.

By this time, Smiley had been scared straight, in & out of mental facilities, trying to cope with physical health problems, not being able to see his first son, his Jr. due to past custody issues with the family before his ex-wife passed away in 2011.

Chapter 8: The Start of a New Journey:

Its was too much & I wasn't allowed to help him, he wouldn't let me so I left & took my children & I to my mom's house where I worked as a paid cosmetologist, I made my first Shea Butter Product infused with Hemp Seed Oil, inspired by my family & I skincare issues. I noticed my family always loved natural shea butter, cocoa butter lotion & skin-friendly essential oils with medicated use & that's what made me add hemp.

Industrial Hemp (Plant):

Hemp, or industrial hemp, is a plant in the botanical class of Cannabis sativa cultivars grown specifically for industrial and consumable use. It can be used to make a wide range of products. Along with bamboo, hemp is among the fastest growing plants on Earth.

Meanwhile I was building my legal experience when We finally fought for rights for Smiley to see Jr. as we transitioned. I knew it was time to move when the family wasn't comfortable coming to visit me and my babies & we come from the trenches forreal.

Within 1 year of planning our move Smiley decided he'd keep the apartment,

I was very unsettled with that, so I continued my search, I refused to stay trapped in that deterioration, so I was on my grind 10x harder than I've ever been, I was hungry for success.

All of this money was coming in from doing hair, my kids had pandemic money from their head start program. So I was stacking for our move, I wanted a car so it wouldn't be such a hassle, that didn't work, My products were selling out, my brand was improving, it was time to take care of my kids and I living situation so they could get comfortable.

I was in tears finding us a new home, I could feel something terrible happening in the air.
Within an hour of resting while I was suffering from bronchitis from the weather change,
The ceiling fell down into the tub!
It was time to go!

My search was a silent cry for help little did most know.

I couldn't take it anymore, so I went on Facebook Marketplace to find some apartment openings, I found a Lease Takeover, God heard my cries! Within 1 week I moved away to Fairfax and took me & our kids names off of the lease in DC. so we could move to our Junior 1 bedroom during the Pandemic.

We moved to Arlington VA to our 2brm 2baths condo in December 2020 right before Christmas and expanded. Smiley moved back in, he healed.

We agreed to no longer be together only live together for our children but make it civil enough to seem like we never left one another until we officially move on to a happy and healthier relationship. He slept in the living room. I slept in the bedroom. We co-lived like roommates.

We had our first Christmas in a beautiful Condo and he started rehab treatment in Virginia.

February 2021:

Smiley Comes home for his birthday. We had an amazing celebration and we made the first products for His men's beard care brand.

April 2021:

I started working my album "Life is Sweet". "Don't Give Up Queen" was mostly written so I finished the second verse and started recording and was super impressed to know I was making more music by myself. I then knew I'd be creating an album for sure.

I started working on my next song "Worthy" shortly after I finished Don't Give Up Queen!

I had a story to tell through my entire Album!

Album Release: July 15th 2021:
I started working on Graphics and everything took off from there. I made more than 20 sales that week and when my album dropped I made CD's Printed my Covers &
CD- Labels & the CD sold out the 1st week.

August 2021:
I took the CD up to DYRS & let DMV DJ & Radio Host EZ Street see and hear my music from my album. I performed and sold out my products, autographed more CD's & sold out of those as well. Life was really feeling sweet!
All of my hard work & dedication payed off!

From September 2021 to December 2021
It was a roller coaster,
I made my 2nd & 3rd album,
The Experience &
Smooth & Sexy...

I was able to show my true talent as an artist/musician, entertainer & entrepreneur.

By December 2021 I met Young Hump on Instagram.

We planned to work on a couple of songs after
New Year 2022.

2 songs turned to 10 songs

In which premiered on my 4th Album
New World of Funk Released June 1st 2022.

On my birthday June 17th 2022

My family and I had a listening party.
It was the beginning of the best year of my life.
Finally all I've worked hard for was paying off.

Then by April, our rent rises up from $1850 to $2200

We crashed, I prayed, then suddenly God Answered. Boom!!!

I get an email from HagerstownHA
“We called you in response to your application but the number isn't working please give us a call back at 301.....

If we don't hear from you in 10 days we'll have to terminate your application.”

I saw the message 30 minutes after being sent and called back immediately.

What I didn't know was that I'd be moving into a townhouse unit 5 months later!

No doubt I was excited!

I started strategizing my career officially.

I knew for a fact I wanted to establish an enterprise. As I started learning about Hagerstown, I knew I'd be in the right place to do so. While we waited to move, I released my very first publication Hippie Nation Magazine and worked with my former publicist MJ's Hip-Hop Connex who also manages Young Hump & Fredro Starr.

She's the woman who helped me book my first 10 interviews..

I moved out of Arlington August 21st of 2022 temporarily back to Smiley's apartment.

With the help of our uncle, we painted the walls & remodeled some things ourself.

We stayed for 2-3 weeks

I Signed the lease September 1st.

Me & my kids Moved out of DC officially & into our new Townhouse September 3rd.

Now see how God Works?

His plans are bigger than all of us! Period.

By September 15th I found options to get my business kicked off in Hagerstown.

I went on Pinterest and started working on new product ideas. That's when I made my hit All dessert inspired candles & bath & beauty products.

By late October I had my website up & running. I connected with Star The Visionary for my first official event in Hagerstown on October 15th 2022.

The same day I networked, sold out of my candles, body butters, & New World of Funk Album (Physical Copies).

The same day I was able to shelf my products in a store for the first time at Blooms Alley where the event was hosted.

The community fell in love with my work & vibe the first day. I was invited to my first Halloween Pop Up Shop as a headlining vendor with Star The Visionary & Stitch by Lex following The Mummers Parade by The Greenwood District here in Hagerstown where I performed right around the corner from Les Cookies Delight Bakery. (She has delicious Gourmet Cupcakes & Cookies).

I sold out of my Halloween Inspired Bath & Beauty Bundles, Provided free candy to all kids.

Families love our products for themselves & their children.

Products I shopped in the mall for gifts to help bring down the price of name brand products for those in need of value gifts,
For Example, Giant Uno Cards:
(Original Price $24, My Price $15)

From Thanksgiving to Christmas individual & bundled products sold out like cakes. The bundles became hit.
My kids and I started modeling officially. We'd model our products and Adore Dolls Clothes & Accessories.

After New Year of 2023 I made a deal with Blooms Alley to host my first 2 events. They sponsored, I hosted & performed! The first 2 events went well until they took a different approach then open mic at blooms alley later was hosted by Smiley Deep, Leo Fibino, then Justify.

It became more like a concert the more Justify hosted just like it did before they changed me as the Host in which made me confident in partnering with Justify for future events.

We then went on to work on my Red Carpet Brand Achievement Awards Fundraiser & Ceremony, Presented by Hippie Nation Global TV Network formerly known as Hippie Nation Global Network, Hosted by Justify & DJ Zayof2mrw, Co-Funded by me & The City of Hagerstown Municipal.

While transitioning and planning one of Hagerstown best & timeless collaborations, I started Studio Time with Zayof2mrw & Justify. Justify became my producer & manager.

We successfully recorded 3 songs The other songs were in the works.

Unfortunately in November 2023, I cut all ties after The Red Carpet Brand Achievement Awards Ceremony due to a lie that was told on me by a member of the family (no names) & brought to the table after miscommunication with me all because I decided to shoot my shot with him.

Shit he was a hot guy who wouldn't? Ya know?!

A total crazy reason to lie on someone. It's not like he said a total no & didn't stop leading me on to begin with, next time gotta be more clear with your intentions before lying on someone!

No love loss, just protect my peace!

I also decided to start planning my first film production of Halloween The 31st in which led me to 2 major lead roles in 2 more films.

Head on the Writer's Block Filmed in April,

Another film coming in August 2024

While working on my Docuseries Tha Journey

In which continued from the SXSW Episode in which was supposed to only be a documentary on SXSW but led me to creating something to seal the Legacy of The DMV while traveling the the world to support the communities of Arts & Entertainment as well as Non-Profits and Future Brand Establishments.

Since then I've Partnered with Lady Ocewana, we're expanding our partnership bath & beauty by organizing & attending events to showcase our beauty products, product & fashion modeling, acting, catering , speaking on important causes for our community's safety & much more..

This isn't a story, this is my testimony!

If you feel me as you're reading, make that change & don't stop because it's dark, you gotta get out, you gotta let go, & you have to be who you are!

Don't allow no one to live for you!

Only you can do that! It's your life! It's only up from here!

Let's goooo!!!!

Fun Facts!

I'm the Thriving Legacy of a Family who survived & Started Businesses still running to this day in MD, DC & North Carolina;

Fletcher-Johnson Middle School located in Washington DC was built by my dad side family in 1977.

When I was in elementary school, in the 5th grade I attempted to put together an educational project for Tupac Shakur during black history month, in which triggered my school to ban projects on Hip-Hop Artists.

In 2022 I traveled more than 30 hours on the Greyhound bus from Washington DC to Los Angeles CA right before the release of my hit album New World of Funk! There I met Chris Clarke AKA Young Hump in person and tapped into the music events happening all across CA even outside of LA.

In 2024 I traveled with SugaRiot on a Trip to SXSW in Austin TX. There I was able to pull together the independent community Of Arts & Entertainment to become partnered city officials for the next years to come that way everyone can equally enjoy SXSW Official Events. In the process thanks to Hippie Nation's Executive Tavaron Marshall & our Partnered Company Texas Hoodstar News I was able to put Hagerstown Community of Arts & Ent. On the Map & Claim Avocation for the City.

I'm not gonna lie I get bored fast, so yeah, don't take it personal!

I have to stay with multiple projects it's who I am.

When I'm quiet I'm listening & observing. Honestly it's best that I don't sometimes, that's how this book got published!

If you want to learn more about me, listen to my music, my music will tell you everything you need to know about me, oh & Before you ask me why I have trust issues,

Don't forget READ THE BOOK! It's the summary to my life.

Tha Journey isn't over!
PEACE & LOVE!

We were only allowed to put together projects on Disney Channel, Cartoon Network & Nickelodeon Stars after I presented my project for 2Pac!

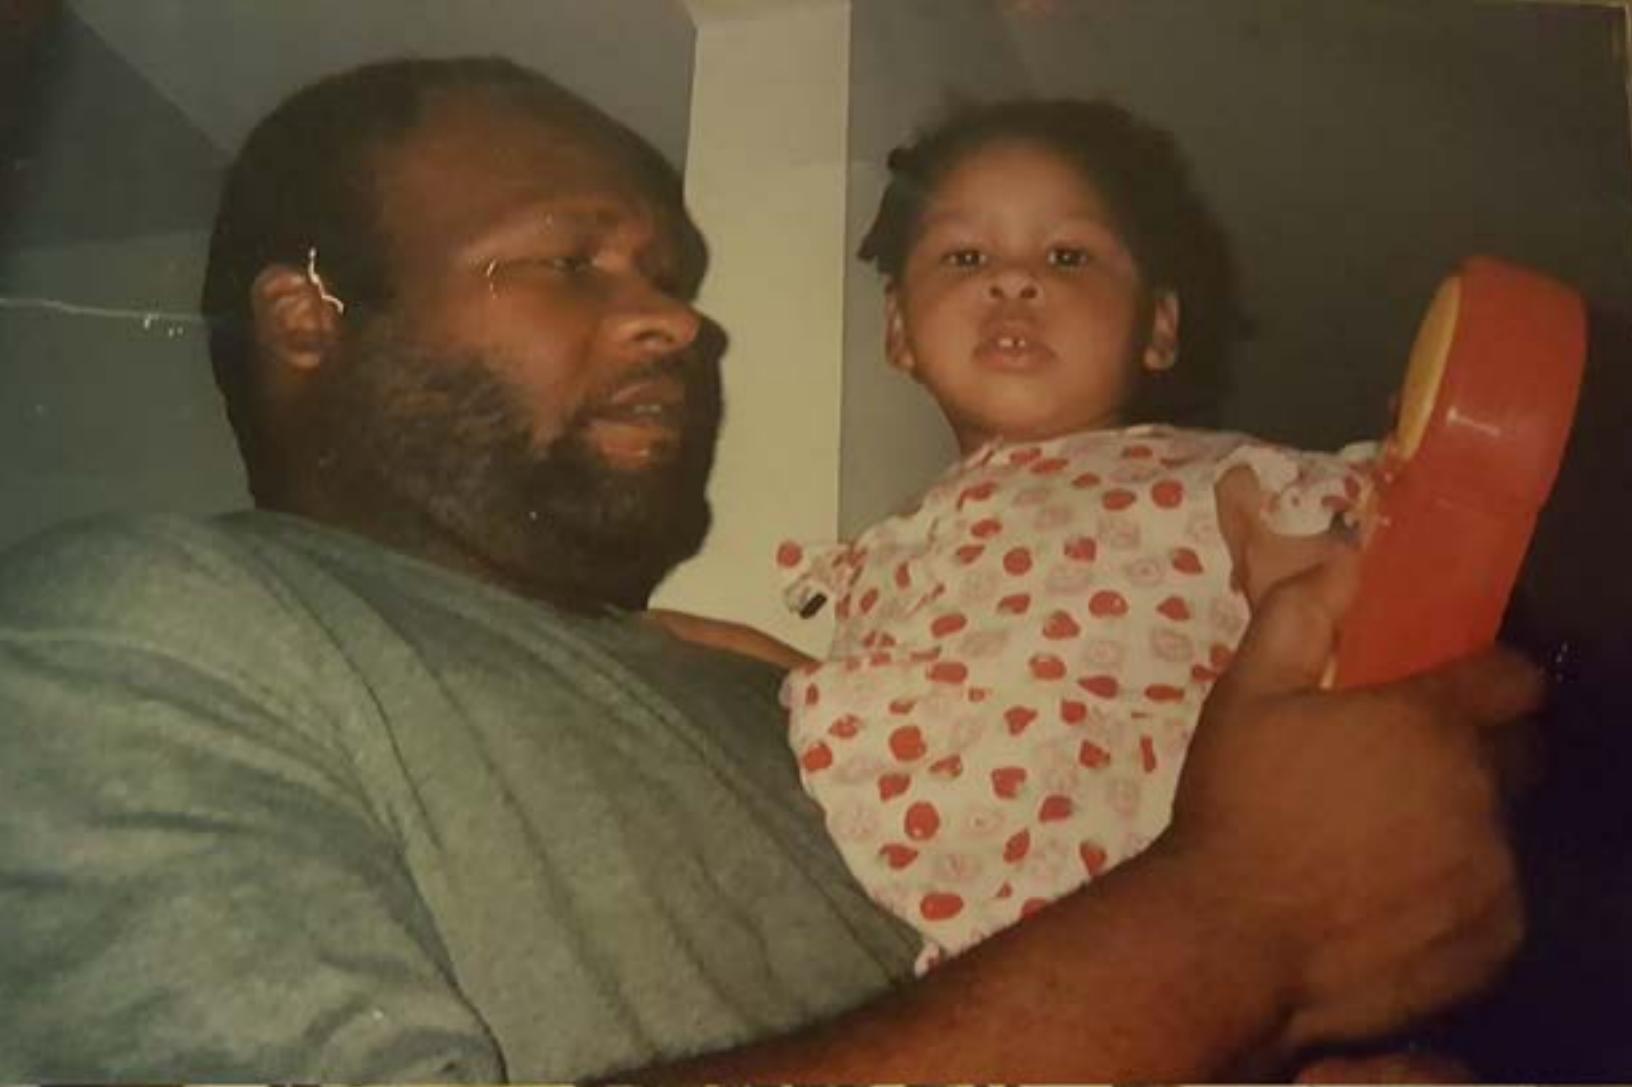

The only other Celebrities allowed were Artists like Beyoncé, Michael Jackson, & Cassie at the time in which my classmates suggested.

My grandmother taught me all about beauty! She was who I looked up to growing up! When I wear red lipstick, pink lipstick pink &/or red lipgloss, I'm carrying her Legacy through my beauty.

THE DMV'S HIPPIE MANDY BRINGS HER CREATIVE TALENTS TO SXSW

Unless you've been hiding under a rock there is no way you haven't heard of the premiere Urban Media Publication "Hippie Nation Magazine". At first glance you can tell by the aesthetics of the pages that this was something created for creatives by a creator. The mag features a lot of artsy visuals accompanied by exclusive interviews of Independent musicians from across the country. Hailing from Hagerstown, MD a town located an hour and a half from the Capital of the United States. Ironically, Hagerstown aka "Hub City" is known for its Arts and Entertainment scene and sense of community. Hippie Mandy is a woman of multiple talents, not only is she an artist, actress and Film Director, she also runs Hippie Nation Global TV Network. The Award winning future mogul, singer-songwriter and Media company owner never seems to rest. This year she brought her multiple talents to SXSW, an annual event held in the vibrant city of Austin, TX. If you would like to be featured in her publication, contact Hippie Mandy @hippienation98.

DJ JAZZY JEFF BRINGS THE CROWN TO THEIR FEET AT SKRATCH
BASTID'S BBQ

This had to be one of the dopest shows that I attended during SXSW24. Not only did they have some descent BBQ but they had a line up featuring some of the greatest DJs of this generation. Statik Selektah, Skratch and of course Jazzy Jeff were the highlights of this show. Ben Buck even Beatboxed!
